Building Upon The Revelation album release

The pathways of discipline, the first full length album from creative genius and guitar virtuoso K Prouty's new project Building Upon The Revelation, is set to be released August 12th 2022.

Building Upon The Revelation is progressive instrumental with a heavy focus on composition and melody. The pathways of discipline features blast beats, fuzz bass, pianos, strings, horn sections, organs, synths, E bows and loads of guitar. The album sounds both futuristic and classic at the same time, while taking the listener on a journey of self discovery.

Not afraid to stand alone, K Prouty has built a sonic world that stands apart. Soundscapes that live in a strange balance of contradiction. The album was written and arranged to work as a whole piece with a theme and story arc.
